The Faculty of Law, University of Bergen

COURSE EVALUATION

Areas to report on (where applicable)

Lecturer's assessment of:

Practicalities around the course

a) Structure of the course

20 hours, offered in two weeks

b) Lectures

Yes

c) Compulsory paper (if applicable)

No

d) Examination

In class open essays (answering written questions)

e) Service from the administration

Excellent

Percentage of failures and drop-out/withdrawal

0%

Distribution of grades

	Total/Women
E	0 / 0
D	3 / 2
C	2 / 1
B	20 / 9
A	20 / 12

Information and documentation about courses

On my space

Access to relevant literature

Through reading materials

Lecturer's assessment of general conditions:

Premises and teaching equipment

Good ones, even if the Seminaar Room can be pretty stuffy after 2 hours of class

Other

Lecturer's comments to the evaluation from students

None

Lecturer's overall assessment, including suggestions for improvement

Some intenrational students are used to recieve a complete syllabus, structured on day by day reading materials, others are not. UiB could take a general stand whether complete syllabus are desired, and in cas, inform Visiting professors before their teaching begins

Gianmaria Ajani
Visiting Professor
Private Comparative Law
Fall term 2012/2013