

European Connections and Interactions in China, ca. 1880-1920
Monday, November 16th, 2009
	First session: Encounters and Entanglement	Chair: Karina Hestad Skeie, University of Bergen
10.30-11.00	Welcome and presentation of the research group	Camilla Brautaset, University of Bergen
11.00-12.00	The British Empire's Image of East Asia, 1900-41: Politics, Ideology, and International Order	Antony Best, London School of Economics
	Second session: Missionaries in China	Chair: Christhard Hoffmann, University of Bergen
14.00-15.00	Title T.B.A	Ryan Dunch, University of Alberta
15.00-15.30	Discussion
15.30-16.00	Missionary history as transnational history	Karina Hestad Skeie, University of Bergen
16.00-16.15	Discussion
16.15-16.45	Coffee break
16.45-17.15	To Become a Missionary: Female Missionary Candidates and their Preparation for Work in China	Joanna Baridziej, University of Bergen
17.15-17.30	Discussion
Tuesday, November 17th, 2009
	Third session: Merchants and migrants	Chair: Harm Schrøter, University of Bergen
09.00-10.00	Research in the Maritime and Business Histories of Hong Kong and China (19th and 20th centuries)	Bert Becker, Hong Kong University
10.00-10.30	Discussion
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-11.30	Shipping in the Global City: Cooperation, Conflict and Conservancy in Shanghai, 1900-1911	Shirley Ye, Harvard University
11.30-11.45	Discussion
11.45-12.15	Swedish-Norwegian connections and interactions in China, 1847-1905	Ingrid Myrstad, University of Bergen
12.15-12.30	Discussion
14.00-14.30	Reciprocity of national policies and international migrant trade: consuls and shipping agents as go-betweens in shaping North Atlantic migrant routes 1840-1914	Torsten Feys, European University Institute
14.30-14.45	Discussion
14.45-15.15	Scandinavian shipping companies and the sudden passage from the Far East through Scandinavia during WWI	Per Kristian Sebak, University of Bergen
15.15-15.30	Discussion
15.30-15.45	Coffee break
15.45-16.30	Concluding session and future research	