Announcement - Mobility scholarships for 2009

The Nordic Centre for Medieval Studies (NCMS) hereby announces mobility scholarships for doctoral and postdoctoral fellows working within the research fields of the NCMS. These include state formation, religion and culture (see URL: <http://www.uib.no/ncms>).

The scholarship covers a research stay at one of the nodes of the network (Bergen, Göteborg, Helsinki, and Odense) for a period between two weeks and three months. The candidate who is awarded a mobility scholarship will be enrolled at the research activities at the given node.

The scholarship consists of the equivalent of 12 000.-NOK a month. In addition, travel expenses will be reimbursed upon documentation with a sum up to 4000.-NOK (no additional funding for family is available). In order to get the travel expenses reimbursed, the candidate has to write a short report evaluating his or her stay at the given node.

An application including CV, a short summary of current research project(s), aim(s) of the research stay and tentative dates for the stay during 2009 should be sent to the Nordic Centre for Medieval Studies by e-mail: post@ncms.uib.no.

If applying for a scholarship in Bergen, however, the only dates available are March, April and October, November. If applying for a scholarship to Bergen. In particular, we would encourage women to apply. The application deadline is 18 April 2008. For more details, see <http://www.uib.no/ncms> or contact NCMS by e-mail: post@ncms.uib.no
