

Interrogating Prostheses

Open lecture and performative speech

Open lecture with David Serlin, University of California San Diego and performative speech by Jenni-Juulia Wallinheimo-Heimonen, textile and conceptual disability artist.

May 15 - Open lecture 15.30-17.30, D9

David Serlin is associate professor at University of California San Diego. He is the author of Replaceable You: Engineering the Body in Postwar America (2006).

May 16 - Performative speech 15.30-17.30, D9

Jenni-Juulia Wallinheimo-Heimonen is a textile and conceptual disability artist. Her textile and media works deal with the issues of human rights and structures of power that face people with disabilities.

Organizers: The Nordic Network Gender, Body, Health in collaboration with Gender Studies, Stockholm University and SKOK, University of Bergen.

