

Costas Polyzos CV

Costas Polyzos acquired his Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Panteion University, and a Master's degree from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, where he completed his dissertation titled "The Banalisation of Domination: Goffmanian Dramaturgy as a Descriptive Sociology of Domination in Everyday Interactions". Currently, he is a PhD candidate in Sociology at the same university, where he is working on his thesis titled "Elements of Orthodox Ethics: a Weberian approach to the Orthodox tradition in 19th century Greece". He is a member of the Weber Scholars Network. Costas Polyzos has served as a Website and Database Editor for the "1821 Digital Archive" project and as a Database Editor for "1821 Greek Revolution Observatory" research project. He is now a Graduate Assistant at the Norwegian Institute at Athens.