About the Workshop

Curious about how to bring your research to life outside academia? This workshop provides a chance to explore just that. Through inspiring talks, hands-on activities, and networking, you'll get a taste of what it takes to turn research into a startup venture.

Highlights include:

- An introduction to VIS' brand-new entrepreneurship program for researchers, TILT, tailored to provide researchers with entrepreneurial skills, expert advisory services and access to capital and networks. Recruitment of pilot participants in progress!
- Inspirational stories from researchers who've made the transition to startup founders
- Case work to start building an entrepreneurial mindset

Program Outline

- 09:00 - 09:15: Coffee and mingling
- 09:15 - 10:00: Introducing VIS & TILT
- 10:00 - 10:50: Inspirational talks
- 10:50 - 12:00: Case work and wrap-up

Mark your calendar for December 12th and join us to see how your research might create impact beyond the university!
