

PhD Course GEO901 - Course Plan 2017

The Production and Interpretation of Qualitative Data

The course is part of Norwegian Researcher School in Geography, funded by Norwegian Research Council. ntnu.edu/nrsg

Department of Geography, University of Bergen

Course manager: Arnt Fløysand

Cell phone: +47 920 91 943

arnt.floysand@uib.no

Adm assistance: Anne-Kathrin Thomassen

Cell phone: +47 99716701

anne-kathrin.thomassen@uib.no

Session 1: 3 - 6 October

Venue: UiB Global, Jekteviksbakken 31 Bergen (part of Law Faculty building)

Tuesday 3 October

12.00-13.00 Dr Tor H Aase/Dr Arnt Fløysand: Opening of course; short round of presentations

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-15.00 Dr Tor H. Aase: Semiotics for the social sciences.

15:45-16:15 Coffee/Tee

16.15-18.00 Dr Arnt Fløysand: Playing with theory and concepts in qualitative research: Actor-Network Theory and place as a performing actant.

Wednesday 4 October

09.15-12.00 Dr Giampietro Gobo: Qualitative sampling and representativeness

12.00-13.00 Lunch

13.15-15.00 Dr Martin Hess: Investigating Embeddedness: Qualitative Methods and Cross-Cultural Research.

15:00-15.30 Coffee/tea

15.30-17.00 Dr Anders Vassenden: Photo elicitation

Thursday 5 October

09.15-12.00 Dr Jørgen Ole Bærenholdt: Making Ethnographies of Tourist Place Design.

12.00-13.00 Lunch

13.15-14.45 Dr Elin Sæther: Discourse analysis.

14.45-15.15 Coffee/tea

15.15-17.00 Dr Håvard Haarstad: Scale as an analytical tool.

Friday 6 October

09.15-12.00 Dr Tor H Aase: Qualitative methodology in practice: How can we understand the phenomena of Honor and Revenge?

12.00-13.00 Lunch

13.00-14.30 Dr Tor H Aase/Dr Arnt Fløysand: Round of participant presentation of planned paper.

During October 6th – November 10th, participants who take the full course (10 ECTS) write draft papers in their home institutions. Deadline for submission of paper is December 15th.