

Preliminary programme NNELS Bergen March 3

09:00: Registration and coffee

09:30: Opening speech, by Director of CENTENOL and Professor of Law, Christian Franklin

09:45-11:45: Nordic Outreach in the EU – shared experiences and new insights

How do we bring Nordic perspectives to the broader European discussion on EU law?

- Keynote EU Law Live, by Editor-in-Chief and Professor at the Universidad Complutense of Madrid, Daniel Sarmiento
- FIDE as a way to reach out. Finland as future host of the FIDE congress – status of report deliveries in the Nordic networks and inputs, by Chair of FIDE Finland and Professor at the University of Helsinki, Juha Raitio
 - o Short input from the other FIDE chairs

10:45-11:00 Coffee break

11:00: Continuation Nordic outreach in the EU

Other ways to reach out?

- Short contributions from all five countries (max 5 mins per contribution)
 - o NO: Professors Halvard Haukeland Fredriksen at the University of Bergen (Co-director of CENTENOL) and Ole Andreas Rognstad at the University of Oslo (Director of EURNOR)
 - o IS: Professors Gunnar Thor Petursson at the University of Reykjavik
 - o DK: Professor Ulla Nergaard at the University of Copenhagen
 - o SE: Professor Björn Lundqvist at Stockholm University
 - o FIN: Professor Juha Raitio at the University of Helsinki

11:45-12:30: Lunch

12:30: Cross-sectoral EU legislation and the rise of “acts” – which challenges are Member States faced with in the wake of recent legislative developments from the EU?

- National compliance and enforcement experiences from a Norwegian perspective as an EEA/EFTA Member State, by Associate Professor at the University of Bergen, Ingrid Barlund
- Discussion (15 minutes)

13:15-13:30: Coffee break

13:30: Teaching EU law - AI and other digital teaching tools

- AI-integration in Master of Laws, by Professor of Law at the University of Bergen, Synne Sæther Mæhle
- Risks and awareness of using AI in teaching, by Associate Professor Docent Vladimir Bastidas at the University of Uppsala
- Different ways to use flipped classroom, by Associate Professor at the University of Oslo, Stian Øby Johansen

15:00-15:30: Ending with book launch and mingling: Research Handbook on EEA Internal Market Law, edited by Professor of Law at the University of Southern Denmark, Graham Butler

There will be a social gathering on Sunday evening for those of you who arrive in Bergen the day before. More information about time and place to come.

* * *