

Multilingualism
on my mind

Multilingualism

From languages to speaks, uses, people

University of Bergen, Institutt for fremmedspråk

October 14th-15th 2019

Programme

Monday October 14th

Sydneshaugen skole, seminarrom M

11.30 – 11.45 Coffee

11.45 – 12.00 Marco Gargiulo, Åsta Haukås, Iørn Korzen: Welcome words.

Multilingualism and language teaching

12.00 – 12.45 Åsta Haukås, Andre Storto, Irina Tiurikova (University of Bergen):
UNGSPRÅK: First insights into young learners' multilingual identity.

12.45 – 14.15 Lunch

From languages to speaks, uses, people

14.15 – 14.45 Irene Baron & Michael Herslund (Copenhagen Business School): The narratives of tourism destinations.

- 14.45 – 15.15 Lita Lundquist (Copenhagen Business School): Studying the use of humour across languages and cultures. Methods, results and perspectives.
- 15.15 – 15.45 Guowen Shang (University of Bergen): Multilingualism in Eastern China's Cityspace: Code Distribution and General Perception.

Tuesday October 15th

Jusbygget (Dragefjellet skole), seminarrom 4

Multilingualism and language teaching

- 10.30 – 11.00 Raees Calafato (University of Bergen): Charting a roadmap to a more systematized multilingual approach to teaching languages.
- 11.00 – 11.30 Maj Schian Nielsen (University of Agder): Can crosslinguistic awareness among future language teachers improve grammar teaching in a German L3-context?
- 11.30 – 11.45 Coffee break
- 11.45 – 12.15 Iørn Korzen (Copenhagen Business School): Are some languages more complex than others? On text complexity and how to measure it.
- 12.15 – 13.45 Lunch

From languages to speaks, uses, people

- 13.45 – 14.15 Henrik Høeg Müller (University of Aarhus): Complementarity and division of labour between endo- and exocentric languages. The case of Danish and Spanish.
- 14.15 – 14.45 Hanne Korzen (Copenhagen Business School): Free predicatives: a contagious construction, illustrated by French, English and Danish.
- 14.45 – 15.00 Coffee break
- 15.00 – 15.30 Marco Gargiulo (University of Bergen): Language conflict, camouflage and glottophagy in the Italian cinematic city.
- 15.30 – 15.45 Till next time – Arrivederci – Au revoir – Auf Wiedersehen – På gensyn – På gjensyn.