Program

Thursday 21 Nov.

9.45 Coffee and Welcome (Sorin Bangu, Kevin Cahill, Steinar Bøyum - HoD)

10.00 - 11.30 William Child (Oxford): Anthropology and Naturalism in Wittgenstein's Philosophy of Mathematics

11.45 – 12.30 Pichler & Frederik Kettelhoit (Bergen / WAB): A new tool for studying Wittgenstein's Remarks on the Foundations of Mathematics

Lunch

14.00 -15.30 Severin Schroeder (Reading): Convention, calculation, and empirical truth in Wittgenstein's philosophy of mathematics

15.45 – 16.30 Ásgeir B. Matthíasson (St. Andrews): Contradictions and falling bridges: What was Wittgenstein's reply to Turing?

16.45 – 18.15 Alexander George (Amherst College): Grammar or Anthropology: Wittgenstein's "remarks on the natural history of man"

19.45 Dinner

Friday 22 Nov.

9.45 Coffee

10.00 – 11.30 Annalisa Coliva (UC Irvine): Are there mathematical hinges?

11.45 – 12.30 Giulia Corti (Kings College London): Drawing the limits of thought: Necessary propositions in the Tractatus

Lunch

14.00 – 15.30 Oskari Kuusela (East Anglia): Wittgenstein's non-empiricist naturalism in logic

15.45 – 16.30 Joao E. da Silva (Lisbon): Not empiricism and yet realism in logic. Wittgenstein v. Maddy

16.45 – 18.15 Juliet Floyd (Boston): Wittgenstein and Turing, 1939 [skype]

18.15 – 19.00 Round table / future plans