

TRAINING OF THE TRAINERS IN MEDICAL ETHICS (ToT ME) IN ETHIOPIA FALL 2014

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Theme	Medical ethics	End of life decisions Empirical data, regulations, value conflicts	Deciding for others The concept of autonomy	Priority setting at a clinical level	The Center of Ethics and Priority setting at AAU
Aim	Clinical ethics in various contexts Concepts and methods in the ToT ME course	Be able to make a lecture on end-of-life dilemmas and contextualize the findings from the literature to the Ethiopian setting	Be able to make a lecture on autonomy and challenging decision making relevant in the Ethiopian setting	Repetition of material from course module 4 Be able to make a lecture on priority setting dilemmas and theories of justice	Operationalizing the center; plans, tasks, people
08.30 – 09.30	Welcome (XX) Introduction round News and plans (Dawit D) Introduction to ToT ME Overview of previous courses (Ingrid)	Danis and Hurst: An introduction to the literature and theoretical discussions concerning end-of-life dilemmas	Danis and Hurst: An introduction to the literature and theoretical discussions concerning autonomy	Priority setting in health in Ethiopia (Damen) Priority setting at the clinical level in Ethiopia (Frehwiot)	1: Tasks for the center: Organizing the teaching in ethics for medical students (Moderator Dawit W)
09.30 – 10.30	Death and dying in Ethiopia Decision making in Ethiopia (Dawit W)	End of life dilemmas in Ethiopia (Dawit D)	Danis and Hurst: An introduction to described dilemmas concerning deciding for others	Danis and Hurst: Priority setting at the clinical level; empirical data and frameworks for improving priority setting	2: Tasks for the center: Organizing the CEC (Moderator Dawit D)
10.30 – 10. 50 Coffee Break
10.50 – 11.30	Clinical ethics work in American settings (Danis) Clinical ethics work in Switzerland and other European countries (Hurst)	CEC practice 1a: A case from the ICU 1b: A case from the oncology unit	CEC practice 1a: A case from the psychiatric ward 1b: Students presenting a case	CEC practice 1a: 1b: A case from xx	3. Future collaboration with University of Bergen, February meeting, plans for paper, update on textbook (Ingrid)
11.30 – 13.00	Brush up on CEC and plans for how to work on cases (IM) Cases: (selected from what participants have sent before the course)	Plenary discussion (Moderator: Dawit D)	Plenary discussion (Moderator: Dawit W)	Plenary discussion (Moderator: Frehiwot)	Wrap up and further planning
13.00 – 14.00 Lunch					