

Tore Nordenstam

CV

1934	Born in Nyköping, Sweden.
1941-1945	Elementary schools in Southern Sweden and Lappland.
1945-1953	Secondary school, Gothenburg, Sweden.
1953-1961	Studies at the universities of Gothenburg, Uppsala, Oxford (philosophy, aesthetics, German).
1956	Fil.kand., University of Gothenburg.
1961	Fil.lic., University of Gothenburg. Dissertation: Empiricism and the Analytic-Synthetic Distinction .
1965	Ph.D., University of Khartoum. Dissertation: An Analysis of the Traditional Sudanese Virtues .
1961-1966	Lecturer, Department of Philosophy, University of Khartoum.
1966-1968	Lecturer, Department of Sociology, University of Umeå.
1967-1968	Docent in descriptive ethics, University of Umeå.
1968-1981	Dosent (reader) in philosophy, University of Bergen.
1981-1998	Professor of philosophy, University of Bergen.
1973-2001	Humboldt research fellowship, Universität des Saarlandes, Saarbrücken, 24 months, in several portions from 1973 to 2001.
1985-1997	Visiting professor, University of Khartoum, two months, 1985. Guest professor, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, 20 % position, 1990-1993. Visiting professor, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, Newfoundland, two months, 1997.
1958-1998	Research and teaching in the fields of philosophy and practical knowledge. Courses and conferences, ethical committees, evaluations, administration chores.
1999 onwards	Professor emeritus, University of Bergen. Writing and painting; travelling; lecturing; peer reviews, evaluations, committee work.