Organizers

The Committee for Research Integrity at the University of Bergen

The organizers of the Seminar are the Committee for Research Integrity at the University of Bergen.

The Committee for Research Integrity handles cases regarding misconduct or dishonesty in accepted scientific practices. The Committee also works proactively to disseminate ethics in research. This is the 5th year running that the Committee for Research Integrity has arranged a seminar about Research Ethics.

The Committee for Research Integrity is responsible for editing "Ethics" at the UiB: www.etikk.uib.no and also arranges breakfast seminars on research-ethical questions for the employees at the University. The Committee consists of the Prorector as a permanent member, and two additional members chosen by the University Board. The Secretarial Collegiate functions as the Secretariat.
